Name of Activity

Parent-Child Chinese Cultural Activity –The Venice of the East – Tai O

Objective(s)

- Strengthen parent-child relationships and promote interaction and communication between schools and parents
- Engage and participate in Chinese cultural activities

Brief Descriptions:

This activity provides an opportunity for parents and young children to explore different places together in a joyful and meaningful way. During the programme, families will take a boat ride to Tai O, a water village known as the “Venice of the East.” Children will observe the mangroves, stilt houses and heritage hotel while learning through firsthand experiences. The activity aims to nurture children’s curiosity and help them develop an early understanding and appreciation of Chinese culture.
